

Home Church

Indescribable - Section Two - Louie Giglio

Note: This week's video ends abruptly and you may want to watch a few minutes of next week's video to find out what the pale blue dot is.

Week Two - Start with prayer. Praise Him for His infinite greatness.

Warm up-

Read Psalm 147:4, Psalm 8:3,4 and review Isaiah 40:25-26

Vocabulary - composite shot

spiral galaxy

solar system

continent

Apollo space program

Voyager space program

pixel

Pop Quiz

- How wide is the Milky Way galaxy?
a. 100,000 miles b. 100,000 light years c. 100,000 kilometers
- The Milky Way galaxy is a(n) _____ galaxy.
a. barred spiral b. ordinary spiral c. elliptical
- Earth is located in the _____ of the Milky Way galaxy.
a. center b. spirals c. between the spirals
- If our solar system were the size of a quarter, how big would the Milky Way galaxy be? a. the size of a dollar b. the size of a refrigerator c. the size of the North American continent
- Our sun is just one of the _____ of stars in the Milky Way galaxy.
a. hundreds b. millions c. billions

Deeper Discussion

- When we comprehend how big God is, what happens to our relative size?
- What is Louie's response to the Apollo 17 picture of the earth?
- What was Neil Armstrong's response to the tiny blue pea he saw out the window of his Apollo 11 spacecraft?
- Given that we are so small and insignificant, why is God mindful of us, like it says in Psalm 8?